BLUE GOVERNANCE IMPERATIVES

Governance in the UN Decade of Ocean Science for Sustainable Development

EVENT: THURSDAY 13 FEBRUARY 2020

Global leaders are invited to address the governance challenge of meeting objectives set out in the UN Decade of Ocean Science in developing countries.

Leaders will work to identify:

- What good 'blue' governance is and the path towards it
- A framework developing countries can use in the UN Decade

This event is part of the launch for the Centre for Blue Governance.
