The address can be found on the bottom of the penultimate page of the application form.

Please note that it is your responsibility to contact your referee(s). We are unable to make a decision about your application until we receive your reference.

Name of home university/institution

Provide the name of the university, college or institution that you are currently attending.

Section 13 Criminal convictions

To help us ensure that the interests and safety of all members of the University community are safeguarded, we must know about any relevant criminal convictions that an applicant may have. If you have a relevant criminal conviction, please tick the box. The information that you provide will not affect the academic assessment of your application. However, the University may want to consider the application further or ask for more information before making a decision.

If you have a relevant criminal conviction that is not spent, please tick the box; otherwise leave it blank.

What is a relevant criminal conviction?

Relevant criminal offences include convictions, cautions, admonitions, reprimands, final warnings, bind over orders or similar involving one or more of the following:

- Any kind of violence including (but not limited to) threatening behaviour, offences concerning the intention to harm or offences which resulted in actual bodily harm.
- Offences listed in the Sex Offences Act 2003.
- The unlawful supply of controlled drugs or substances where the conviction concerns commercial drug dealing or trafficking.
- Offences involving firearms.
- Offences involving arson.
- Offences listed in the Terrorism Act 2006.

If your conviction involved an offence similar to those set out above, but was made by a court outside of Great Britain, and that conviction would not be considered as spent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, you should tick the box.

Warnings, penalty notices for disorder (PNDs), anti-social behaviour orders (ASBOs) or violent offender orders (VOOs) are not classed as convictions for the purpose of this section, unless you have contested a PND or breached the terms of an ASBO or VOO and this has resulted in a criminal conviction.

What does 'spent' mean?

If a person does not re-offend during their rehabilitation period, their conviction becomes 'spent' (as defined by The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974).

Convictions that are spent are not considered to be relevant and you should not reveal them. You should note that certain offences are never spent.

If you are convicted of a relevant criminal offence after you have applied, you must tell us. Do not send details of the offence; simply tell us that you have a relevant criminal conviction. The University will then ask you for more details.

Section 14 Equal opportunities monitoring

This information will be used by the University for statistical purposes only and will not affect the decision on your application. The University is required to release this information to the Higher Education Statistics Agency to whom all UK universities are legally obliged to report data.
